Excise Police Cite Seven Establishments

BLOOMINGTON, Ind. – Indiana State Excise Police officers cited seven alcoholic beverage establishments on 14 charges, arrested two people on six charges, and issued one warning during inspections in Monroe and Brown counties on Saturday, August 2, 2008.

The following alcoholic beverage businesses were issued notices of violation:

Bluebird Nightclub, 216 N. Walnut Street, was cited for allowing a minor to loiter, not having minimum food service, employee working without an alcoholic beverage permit, and no record of an employee permit. Officers also arrested a minor in Bluebird for possession of marijuana, possession of paraphernalia, illegal consumption of an alcoholic beverage, and minor in tavern.

The Cabin Restaurant & Lounge, 4015 S. State Road 446, was cited for allowing a minor to loiter, allowing self-service of alcoholic beverages, and altering floor plans without approval. A warning was issued for failure to display permit.

Fourwinds Resort & Marina, 9301 S. Fairfax Road, was cited for allowing a minor to loiter and altering floor plans without approval.

Mike's Music & Dance Barn, 2277 W. State Road 46, Nashville, was cited for allowing a minor to loiter and altering floor plans without approval.

Uncle Festers/Jungle Room, 430 E. Kirkwood Avenue, was cited for not having minimum food service.

Upstairs Pub, 430 E. Kirkwood Avenue, No. 18, was cited for not having minimum food service.

The Alley Bar, 210 W. Kirkwood Avenue, was cited for not having minimum food service.

Officers also arrested a minor at Irish Lion, 212 W. Kirkwood Avenue, for illegal consumption of an alcoholic beverage and possession of false identification. The Irish Lion was not cited for any violations.

Indiana State Excise Police officers are the enforcement division of the Indiana Alcohol & Tobacco Commission. While excise officers have the authority to enforce any state law, they focus primarily on enforcing Indiana's alcohol and tobacco statutes.
